WEDNINDAY MORNING, - SEPT. 24, 1868. The Official Vote of Kentucky.

We publish this morning the full official vote of Kentacky at the recent election, as certited to by Gov. J. W. Stevenson, Jao. Rodman, Attorney General, and Samuel B. Churchill, Secretary of State, the Board required by law to count the same. The countries of Breathilt. ad Carter did not make their returns to the Secretary of State's office within the tim prescribed by law, and their votes are consequently excluded. Their votes as reported to the COURTER are as follows:

Steven 463 715

1,17H 876

676

Stevenson's udicial maj ...68,678 enson's actual maj.....bn,980 This varies in the aggregate only 361 vote from the returns as published in the COURIES come weeks since, thus showing the remarks ble accuracy of the rote sent to us.

Governor Stevenson's Innagaral. In another column will be found a full report of the coremonies attendant upon the le uguration of Governor Stevenson at Frank ort yesterday, together with the Governor's augural address.

We commend this able and statesma document to the careful study of our readers. It cannot fall to command attention and admiration both et home and ebread. It is emmently conservative in its tone, appealing ear nestly to all classes to rely implicitly upon the rrime or wrong doing; at the same time express ng fearlesslythe determination of the Executive to aubmit to no invasion of the constitutions ights of the Commonwealth.

In these times of base anbservience to illega power, we doesn it cause of congratulation to our follow-citizens that the destintes of Ken tucky should be in the hands of a patrio atatesman such as Governor Stevenson has proven himself to be.

The Tremendous Demonstration at Jeffersonville Yesterday. We publish this morning o fall report of the magnificant demonstration at Jeffersonville yesterday, together with a verbatim report of Senator Hendricks' speech as phonographically taken for the COURTES.

the mooting was not only a grand and a bril-lant success, but far exceeded the most san-guine anticipations. With such a spirit and determination prevalent throughout the State as we witnessed at Jeffersonville yesterday, the result in Indiana is no longer a doubtful question. Hendricks will sweep the State by majority of 30,000.

anorany or suppose. The hospitality axionded by our Hoosier ands to their visitors was unbounded. Pro-tions were abundant and excellent, and they were dispensed with a liberality we have neve seen exceeded. Everybody was delighted, and the good result of this glorious gathering will be felt throughout the entire South. THE RAILROAD VOTE YESTERDAY

Thus Mr. Speed rushes on his fate, fascinated by to release him from the releatless grip of the Indiana "giants," for, though a Spartan band of the "troolie tow," their numbers are few, and "all-telling fame" has seldom uttered their names except in the gentlest and most compassionate whispars.

As we are assured by Mr. Speed, that the Radinother affair as the one he recently attended, by everything that a "Christian can want." the giants there assembled, though imposing and terrible in their sapect, may deal in a truly Christian spirit with Mr. Spoed and his few followers. If they entertain any appre-hensions on his approach we trust that they will feel relieved when we assure them that There is much in Mr. Speed's past public ca.

There is much in Mr. Speed's past public career to commond him to a kind reception from the Radical "gatant." And, et in addition to the similarity of their principles there is an amisbility in the public character of Mr. Speed which will scritt their admiration. Though the would probably prefer, like Bully Bottom, to play the liou's part in the publical drama, he will readily countent himself with enacting any ambordinate role to which he may be assigned. Like Song, he is "but a man as other men are," but unlike Song, it cannot be said that he is "flow of study."
